

ALCA Weekly News

December 8, 2017

Dates to Remember

Dec 10 Tuition Due
Dec 14 Christmas Program
7PM
Dec 22 ½ Day for Students
Dec 23 – Jan 7
Christmas Break

A Note from Sis. Coffey...

For the next two weeks, all students need to be in attendance unless they are ill. We will be reviewing and taking finals and attendance is very important. All students should be busy studying for final exams. Students should have homework every night (studying for final exams).
Have a great weekend!

'Tis the Season to be Jolly!

2nd Grade

- We continued learning the story and songs of Christmas in Bible class. We are learning to use our glossary in Language class and in Math, we started learning the "13" addition family. We have started learning the history of America in History class and we continue reading Paths of Gold in Reading class. Lastly, in Art, we made a reindeer sack puppet!

4th Grade

- We continued learning about nouns and verbs in Language class, and in Math, we are working on equivalent fractions. We are learning about the Civil War, and we are memorizing the "Gettysburg Address" in History. We have finished reading our book for our book report in Reading class and in Science, we are learning about the larynx and how it produces sound! We are reading a new poem called "Window Box" in Poetry class and lastly, in Art, we finished our December calendar.

English 8-12

Students are learning how to “write descriptions” and are also starting to review for semester exams.

History 8-12

Students are reviewing all material learned this semester in preparation for semester exams.

Math

8: We are learning about square roots.
9: We are learning how to “FOIL”.
10: We are learning about the Matrix.
11-12: We are reviewing for our semester exams.

Science 8-12

Students are reviewing all material learned this semester in preparation for semester exams.

REMINDER

All students should be busy studying every night for semester exams!

Specials

Bible: This week students finished their last test on the book of Revelations. Students will begin reports, which will be due before Christmas Break.

Music: Students finished practicing for our Christmas program today! They are ready to present “It’s the Most Wonderful Time of the Year” this Thursday, Dec. 14th at 7:00 PM.

All students need to arrive by 6:00 PM for a quick run through and sound check.